Scope of Licence

(...) "Authorized Users" mean MPG, its employees, faculty, students officially affiliated with MPG, persons with legal access to the library's facilities on site using an IP address set out below and contract staff (permanent or temporary). Authorized Users include persons affiliated with remote sites or campuses of MPG. Access is limited to the site addresses below except that Authorized Users may access the Service from terminals or work stations from which they undertake work for MPG and from remote sites. Access extends only to MPG and Authorized Users individually and may not be transferred or extended to others.

MPG will take all reasonable measures to ensure that only Authorized Users can use the Service and to ensure that Authorized Users are made aware of and understand the restrictions and prohibitions on use set out in these terms and conditions and that they abide by them. MPG will also exercise vigilance and be responsible for all display and access control including security measures necessary to ensure that the Service is only accessible by Authorized Users. MPG will make every effort to enforce these terms on receiving information that reasonably indicates that they are being violated.

Permitted Use

Authorized Users may access, download, store, search and print hard copy of text. Copying must be limited to making single printed or electronic copies of a reasonable number of individual items. No text accessed via the Service may be made available to non-Authorized Users either for commercial reward or free of charge except to the extent that inter-library loans may be made to other libraries in Germany of articles that have been down loaded and printed in hard copy provided they are not delivered to the requesting library on-line.

Access is granted to Authorized Users solely for private use or research by Authorized Users. Such Authorized Users may use the Service for educational resources such as "class packs" provided solely to Authorized Users provided that electronic copies included in such educational resources are removed or deleted at the end of the semester or term in which the relevant course ends. Such Authorized Users may also make brief quotations from the content of online journals with the customary acknowledgement of the source, and copy and transmit content from individual online articles in "person-to-person" and non-systematic scholarly exchanges of information between Authorized Users and specific individuals.

The Institution and Authorized Users may only use this online access in the way that conforms to all applicable laws and regulations.

Prohibitions

Altering, recompiling, systematic or programmatic copying, reselling, redistributing, publishing or republishing (beyond the brief quotations permitted above) of any journal text, output, search results or other information from any part of the Service, including, without limitation, copyright, proprietary or other legal notices, in any form or medium is prohibited. Systematic downloading, service bureau redistribution services, printing for a for-fee-service purpose and/or the systematic making of print or electronic copies for transmission to non-Authorized Users(beyond that permitted above) are prohibited.

Copyright

IOP's online journals including the AAS Journals and their content, including abstracts, are copyright IOP or are made available under licence and are subject to all applicable copyright, database protection and other rights of copyright owners and publishers under the laws of England and other countries. Authorized Users shall claim no ownership by reason of their use of or access to the Service. ALL RIGHTS RESERVED.

This agreement applies to online access to the AAS Journals only. If MPG or any of its members wishes to acquire print versions of the AAS Journals then they will need to pay full price for individual print subscriptions.
