No text accessed via the Service may be made available to non-Authorised Users, either for commercial reward or free of charge, except that for inter-library loan purposes a single paper copy of an electronic original may be made and sent non-digitally to a library in the same country as the Member under fair dealing/use exemptions. In addition, for inter-library loan purposes a Member may make a single paper copy of an electronic original available to a library in the same country by secure transmission using Ariel or ILLiad (or their equivalent) whereby that electronic file is deleted immediately after printing. Such supply must be for the purpose of research or private study and not for commercial use or onward transmission or distribution. (...)

7. Access is granted to Authorised Users of educational institutions solely for private study or research for a noncommercial purpose by Authorised Users. Such Authorised Users may use the Service for educational resources, such as "course packs", made available solely to Authorised Users, provided that electronic copies included in such educational resources are removed or deleted at the end of the semester or term in which the relevant course ends. Such Authorised Users may also make brief quotations from the content of the Journals, with the customary acknowledgement of the source, and copy and transmit content from individual online articles in "person-to-person" and non-systematic scholarly exchanges of information.

8. The Members and Authorised Users may only use this online access in a way that does not breach the laws of the country in which they are accessing the Service.

9. Altering, recompiling, systematic or programmatic copying, reselling, redistributing, supplying, publishing or republishing (beyond the brief quotations permitted above) of any Journal text, output, search results or other information from any part of the Service, including, without limitation, copyright, proprietary or other legal notices, in any form or medium is prohibited.
