SCHEDULE 1: IOP STANDARD TERMS AND CONDITIONS

Authorised Users

1. In these terms and conditions, the term "Authorised Users" shall mean (definition depends on whether the Member is a commercial organisation or an educational institution):

1.2 (applies only if a Member is an educational institution) its employees, faculty (permanent, temporary and visiting), students officially affiliated with the Institution, persons with legal access to the library's facilities using one of the IP addresses, and contract staff (permanent or temporary). Authorised Users include persons affiliated with remote sites or campuses of the Member in the same country as the Member and/or persons affiliated with the Member who are studying overseas at sites or campuses of a third party institution on a temporary basis. For the avoidance of doubt, walk in users shall only be entitled to access the Service whilst on the Member's premises and shall lose this access upon departure. In addition, such persons shall be excluded from all remote access privileges.

Access to the Service

4. Authorised Users may access, download, store, search and print hard copy of text. Copying must be limited to making a single printed copy or electronic copies of a reasonable number of individual articles, chapters or other similar items.

5. No text accessed via the Publications may be made available to non-Authorised Users, either for commercial reward or free of charge, except that for inter-library loan purposes:

5.1 a single paper copy of an article or chapter from a single Publication may be made and sent non-digitally to a library in the same country as the Consortium under fair dealing/use exemptions;

5.2 a single copy of an article or chapter from a single Publication may be made available to a library in the same country by secure transmission using Ariel or ILLiad (or their equivalent) whereby that electronic file is deleted immediately after printing. Such supply shall be for the purpose of research or private study and not for commercial use or onward transmission or distribution. In the USA, such copies may only be made in compliance with Section 108 of the Copyright Act of the USA and within CONTU guidelines.

7. Access is granted to Authorised Users of educational institutions (as defined in term 1.2) solely for private study or research for a non-commercial purpose by Authorised Users. Such Authorised Users may use the Service for educational resources, such as "course packs", made available solely to Authorised Users, provided that electronic copies included in such educational resources are removed or deleted at the end of the semester or term in which the relevant course ends. Such Authorised Users may also make brief quotations from the content of the Publications, with the customary acknowledgement of the source, and copy and transmit content from individual online articles in "person-to-person" and non-systematic scholarly exchanges of information.

8. The Members and Authorised Users may only use this online access in a way that does not breach the laws of the country in which they are accessing the Service.

9. Altering, recompiling, systematic or programmatic copying, reselling, redistributing, supplying, publishing or republishing (beyond the brief quotations permitted above) of any Publication text, output, search results or other information from any part of the Service, including, without limitation, copyright, proprietary or other legal notices, in any form or medium is prohibited. Downloading an entire issue of a Publication; systematic downloading, service bureau redistribution services; printing for a for-fee-service purpose; document delivery services and/or the systematic making of print or electronic copies for transmission to non-Authorised Users (beyond that permitted above) are prohibited.

SCHEDULE 6: TEXT AND DATA MINING

"Text and Data Mining" means to download, extract and index information from the Publications for non-commercial purposes. Where required, mount, load and integrate the results on a server used for the Consortium and/or the Members' text-mining system and evaluate and interpret the TDM Output. The Consortium and the Members shall use all reasonable efforts to ensure compliance with this Licence, including security and technical access requirements; and

"Text and Data Mining Output ("TDM Output")" means the result of any Text and Data Mining activity or operation, capable of fixation, reproduction and/or communication in any form, such as in the creation of an index, reference, abstract, relative or absolute description or representation of the Publications, an algorithm, formula, metrics, method, standard or taxonomy describing or based on the Publications, a relational expression or measurement, whether scalable or not, of the Publications, extraction, alternative representation or translation, expression or discussion of any extracts from mined Publications, whether in the form of a direct extraction or a representation in any form which is based on the Publications.

1. The Consortium and the Members may load and technically format the Publications on their or a third party server that enables access to and use of the Publications for Text and Data Mining purposes by Authorised Users by using automated programs or devices to continuously and automatically (i) download, extract and index information from the Publications for the purpose of enhanced navigation of the Publications and (ii) extract semantic entities from the Publications for the purpose of recognition and classification of the relations between them and (iii) derive patterns within the Publications and (iv) evaluate and interpret the TDM Output. IOP excludes any warranty regarding the quality of the metadata, formatting and errors or omissions. The Publications are made available "as is" and without warranty of fitting the description of the Publications in the metadata or otherwise, any fitness for purpose, satisfactory quality, reliability and completeness.

2. Except as expressly stated in this Licence, or otherwise permitted in writing by IOP, the Consortium and the Members and Authorised Users shall not in respect of Text and Data Mining:

2.1 perform systematic or substantive extracting of the Publications for the purposes of creating a product or service for use by third parties;

2.2 utilise the TDM Output to enhance institutional or subject repositories in a way that could compete with the value of the final peer reviewed articles in the Publications, or substitute and/or replicate any other existing IOP product, service and/or solution;

2.3 extract, develop or use the Publications in any commercial activity other than for Text and Data Mining;

2.4 abridge, modify, translate or create any derivative work based on the Publications, except to the extent necessary to make it perceptible on a computer screen to Authorised Users;

2.5 use any robots, spiders, crawlers or other automated downloading programs, algorithms or devices to continuously and automatically search, scrape, extract, deep link, index or disrupt the working of the Publications; and/or

2.6 substantially reproduce, retain or redistribute the Publications.

3. Authorised Users are free to use the TDM Output and any database rights created as a result of Text and Data Mining activities are the sole property of the Authorised Users. Such TDM Output shall be licensed under a Creative Commons CC-BY NC ND licence, include a link to the DOI of the applicable article wherever practicable and include a maximum of 200 characters from the original article.

4. Any rights of the Consortium and the Members to carry out Text and Data Mining of the Publications shall only apply whilst this Licence is in force and, upon termination of this Licence for any reason, those rights shall cease automatically save in so far as they relate to any issues of the Publications in which the Consortium and the Members have continued access rights under this Licence. Accordingly, upon termination, the Consortium and the Members shall delete from their and all third party servers all other issues of the Publications that they have stored for Text and Data Mining, unless necessary for purposes of reproducibility.
