AGREED TERMS

1. Definitions and Interpretation

Authorised User means a person authorised by the Organisation, or any one of the Institutions, to access the Licensed Materials who is:

- a) affiliated with an Institution as a current faculty member (including temporary or exchange faculty members for the duration of their assignment), enrolled post-graduate or undergraduate student, current staff member or contract personnel directly involved in educational and research activities of the Institution, and has been issued with a password or other currently valid authentication; or
- b) physically present on an Institution's premises and permitted to use the Institution's library or information service and access the Secure Network but only from computer terminals within the Institution's premises, as specified in Schedule 1.

Commercially Run Courses means any course run by an Institution which provides a service to a corporate, government or commercial organisation for a fee, conducted outside and separately from such Institution's normal undergraduate and postgraduate academic activity, and excluding professional development courses offered to individuals as part of such Institution's normal activities.

Commercial Use means use for the purposes of monetary reward (whether by or for the Organisation, an Institution or an Authorised User) by means of sale, resale, loan, transfer, hire or other form of exploitation of the Licensed Materials. For the avoidance of doubt, neither recovery of direct costs by the Organisation from the Institutions or Authorised Users, nor use by the Organisation, an Institution or an Authorised User of the Licensed Materials in the course of research funded by a commercial organisation, is deemed to be Commercial Use. Course pack use on Commercially Run Courses, whether organised by an Institution, or another third party, is considered Commercial Use and as such prohibited.

Course Pack means a collection or compilation of materials (e.g. book chapters, journal articles) assembled by staff of the Organisation or an Institution for the purposes of instruction.

Creative Commons Licence means an international public copyright license produced by the Creative Commons Corporation, the latest versions of which can be found at <https://creativecommons.org/licenses/>

Electronic Reserve means electronic copies of materials (e.g. book chapters, journal articles) assembled by staff of the Organisation or an Institutions for the purposes of instruction.

Intellectual Property Rights means patents, trademarks, trade names, design rights, copyright (including rights in computer software and moral rights), database rights, rights in know-how, goodwill and other intellectual property rights, in each case whether registered or unregistered and including applications for the grant of any of the foregoing and all rights or form; of protection having equivalent or similar effect to any of the foregoing which may subsist anywhere in the world.

Licensed Materials means the visual and audio material, databases, and other publications, that are recorded on or contained in electronic data media, or that are otherwise made available electronically by the Publisher to the Organisation and the Institutions in accordance with this Agreement (...).

Massive Online Open Course (MOOC) means a course of study made available over the internet, with or without charge, to any number of people that are not defined as an Authorised User.

A. LICENSED MATERIALS

2. Grant of Licence

2.1. The Publisher agrees to grant to the Organisation the non-exclusive, non-transferable and non-perpetual licence to give Authorised Users access to the Licensed Material by way of the Online Services for the Subscription Period for the purposes of research, teaching and private study, subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement.

3. Rights of Use

3.1. The Organisation will not, and shall ensure that Authorised Users do not, print, copy, reuse, reproduce, modify, sell, distribute, transfer or commercially exploit the Licensed Materials in whole or in part, other than as expressly permitted in this Agreement or, in the case of any Licensed Materials published in an Open Access Journal under a Creative Commons License, as permitted by the terms of such license.

3.2. For the duration of the Subscription Period and subject to Clause 6 below, the Organisation may:

3.2.1. make such back-up copies of the Licensed Materials as are reasonably necessary;

3.2.2. make such temporary local electronic copies of all or part of the Licensed Materials as are necessary solely to ensure efficient use by Authorised Users and not to make available to Authorised Users duplicate copies of the Licensed Materials;

3.2.3. allow Authorised Users to have access to the Licensed Materials from the Server via the Secure Network; and

3.2.4. display, download or print the Licensed Materials for the purpose of internal marketing or testing or for training Authorised users or groups of Authorised Users.

3.3. For the duration of the Subscription Period and subject to Clause 6 below, Authorised Users may:

3.3.1. search, view, retrieve and display the Licensed Materials;

3.3.2. electronically save individual articles or items of the Licensed Materials for personal use;

3.3.3. print off single copies of parts of the Licensed Materials; and

3.3.4. use the Licensed Materials to perform and engage in text mining / data mining activities for academic research and other educational purposes and not for Commercial Use, and allow Authorised Users to mount, load and integrate the results on a Secure Network and use the results in accordance with this Agreement, provided that the Publisher is notified in writing in advance of the project to ensure that they can provide appropriate technical assistance and maintain a log of projects.

4. Supply of Copies to Other Libraries

4.1. The Institutions may, subject to Clause 6 below, fulfil occasional requests to supply to an Authorised User of another library by post or fax, or as an attachment to a secure email transmission provided the electronic file is deleted immediately after printing, for the purposes of research or private study and not for Commercial Use, a single paper copy of an electronic original of an individual document being part of the Licensed Materials.

4.2. Notwithstanding the provisions of Clause 3, it is understood and agreed that neither the Organisation, the Institutions nor the Authorised Users may provide, by electronic means, (excluding fax or secure transmission as specified in Clause 4.1), to a user at another library a copy of any part of the Licensed Materials for research or private study or otherwise. Providing copies via electronic means to Authorised Users at one of the Institutions in Schedule 1 is permitted.

5. Course Packs, Electronic Reserve and MOOC's

5.1. Subject to Clauses 5.5 to 5.7 below, the Organisation may not, and shall ensure that the Institutions do not, incorporate any part of the Licensed Material into Course Packs and Electronic Reserve collections without the prior written consent of the Publisher, which may set out further terms and conditions for such usage.

5.2. In particular, the Organisation acknowledges that the use of Licensed Material in respect of Commercially Run Courses is specifically prohibited.

5.3. A link to the Licensed Material may be incorporated in Electronic Reserve collections

5.4. No content may be made available in a MOOC without a separate licence being obtained in advance from the Publisher.

5.5. Notwithstanding Clause 5.1 above, where the author of an article, which forms part of the Licensed Materials was employed by an Institution at the time the article was written, that Institution may use all or part of such article internally within the Institution, provided that copies are not offered for sale or distribution in any systematic way, and that acknowledgement to prior publication in the relevant Journal is made explicit.

5.6. Notwithstanding Clause 5.1 above, where the author of an article, which forms part of the Licensed Materials, is engaged by the Institution, that author may make printed copies of all of part of such article on a no-commercial basis for use by the author for lecture or classroom purposes, provided in each case that copies are not offered for sale or distribution in any systematic way, and that acknowledgement to prior publication in the relevant Journal is made explicit.

5.7. Notwithstanding Clause 5.1 above, where an article which forms part of the Licensed Materials is published in an Open Access Journal under a Creative Commons License, the Organisation or an Institution may incorporate that article into Course Packs and/or Electronic Reserve collections without the prior consent of the Publisher, provided and to the extent that in doing so, they do not contravene any term or condition of the applicable Creative Commons License.

6. Prohibited Uses

6.1. Unless it is permitted by a Creative Commons license under which applicable content has been published, neither the Organisation, any Institution nor any Authorised User may:

6.1.1. remove or alter the authors' names or the Publisher's copyright notices or other means of identification or disclaimers as they appear in the Licensed Materials;

6.1.2. systematically make print or electronic copies of multiple extracts of the Licensed Materials, including complete issues, for any purpose;

6.1.3. mount or distribute any part of the Licensed Material on any electronic network, including without limitation the Internet and the World Wide Web, other than the Secure Network; or

6.1.4. systematically distribute the whole or any part of the Licensed Materials to anyone other than an Authorised User.

6.2. Unless it is permitted by a Creative Commons license under which applicable content has been published, the Publisher's explicit written permission must be obtained in order to:

6.2.1. use all or any part of the Licensed Materials for any Commercial Use;

6.2.2. permit anyone other than an Authorised User to access or use the Licensed Material;

6.2.3. publish, distribute or make available the Licensed Materials, works based on the Licensed Materials or works which combine them with any other material, other than as permitted in this Agreement; or

6.2.4. alter, abridge, adapt or modify the Licensed Materials to Authorised Users. For the avoidance of doubt, no alteration of the words or their order is permitted.

8. Terms Applicable to Online Services

8.1. The Organisation acknowledges and agrees that all logins, passwords or other Authorised User identification used to access the Licensed Materials (whether chosen by it or the Authorised User(s) or provided by the Publisher) are personal to the Authorised User(s) and the Organisation shall ensure, as a principal obligation, that the Authorised User(s) shall treat such logins, passwords and other Authorised User identification as confidential and not disclose or transfer them to any person. (...)

8.2. The Organisation is responsible for ensuring that the Institutions' computer systems meet all relevant technical specifications necessary to receive the Licensed Materials. The Organisation also acknowledges that, although the Publisher tries to guard against viruses, it cannot and does not guarantee or warrant that any Licensed Materials will be free from infections, viruses and/or other code that has contaminating or destructive properties. The Organisation and the Institutions are responsible for implementing sufficient procedures and virus checks (including anti-virus and other security checks) to satisfy their particular requirements for the security of data input and output.

8.3. The Organisation must not, and must ensure that the Institutions do not, attempt to interfere with the proper working of the Online Services and, in particular, must not:

8.3.1. attempt to circumvent security, tamper with, hack into, or otherwise disrupt any computer system, server, website, router or any other Internet connected device;

or

8.3.2. use automated retrieval devices (such as so called web robots, wanderers, crawlers, spiders or similar devices).

9. Intellectual Property Rights

9.1. The Organisation acknowledges that the Licensed Materials are protected by international copyright law, database rights and other Intellectual Property Rights, and that all Intellectual Property Rights relating to the Licensed Materials are the sole and exclusive property of the Publisher, its affiliates and licensors.

9.2. This Agreement does not convey to the Organisation any right, title or interest in the Licensed Materials except for the right to use the Licensed Material in accordance with the terms and conditions of this Agreement. All of the Publisher's rights which are not specifically granted to the Organisation by this Agreement are reserved to the Publisher.
