

Terms and Conditions

Use of Information from The Taylor & Francis Group (T&F)

Definitions

Authorised Users: means current faculty members (including temporary or exchange faculty for the duration of their assignment); enrolled post-graduate and undergraduate students; staff members; and contract personnel directly involved in educational and research activities of The Licencee. Authorised Users may have remote access to Publisher Content;

Commercial Use: means use which is for direct economic or commercial advantage, whether by or for The Licencee, Authorised User, or Walk-in User, by means of the sale, resale, loan, transfer, hire or other form of exploitation of Publisher Content. For the avoidance of doubt:

(i) charging of Authorised Users or Walk-in Users by The Licencee for use of Publisher Content is not deemed to constitute Commercial Use;

(ii) use of Publisher Content by The Licencee, Authorised Users, or Walk-in Users in the course of research funded by a commercial organisation is not deemed to constitute Commercial Use. However, use of Publisher Content by The Licencee, Authorised Users, or Walk-in Users in the course of research funded by a commercial organisation for the purpose of contract research deemed to constitute Commercial Use; and

(iii) use of Publisher Content by The Licencee, Authorised Users, or Walk-in Users in the course of research carried out for a commercial organisation is deemed to constitute Commercial Use;

Licencee: means the Max Planck Group

Secure

Authentication: means access to T&F information by Internet Protocol ("IP") ranges or by a username and password provided by Publisher to The Licencee or by another means of authentication agreed between Publisher and The Licencee;

Walk-in Users: means persons who are not Authorised Users but who are permitted users of The Licencee's library and information services and who have been allowed access to T&F information by The Licencee via means of Secure Authentication.

Permitted Uses

Authorised Users and Walk-in Users of information provided by T&F are permitted to:

1. search, retrieve, display, and view T&F information;
2. copy (including printing and downloading) T&F information and retain it as long as they wish for their own personal use;
3. use T&F information for the purposes of research or private study only, and not for Commercial Use;
4. store T&F information electronically, provided the use is consistent with the other terms and conditions described here;

5. include T&F information in a presentation provided that the material carries the relevant credit, as specified below; and

6. include T&F information (for example, a figure, diagram or chart) in a published work provided permission has been sought and obtained from the T&F in advance, except as permitted in accordance with fair use/fair dealing principles.

A permission request form for this purpose is available from T&F's website@).

If Authorised Users or Walk-in Users wish to gain permission from T&F to carry out any other activity not explicitly mentioned above, they must obtain prior written permission from T&F.

Copyright

T&F information is copyright and is subject to all applicable copyright, database protection, and other rights of the copyright owner and publisher. Copyright notices may not be removed, obscured, or modified in any way. Authorised Users and Walk-in Users must take all reasonable precautions to prevent theft or inadvertent illicit use of the intellectual property in T&F information. The relevant copyright notice must be displayed on all copies made from T&F Information.