2. AUTHORIZED USERS

ECS grants to the Subscriber and its Authorized Users online access to the titles listed in Appendix A. This grant extends only to the Subscriber and to Authorized Users at its Sites and may not be transferred or extended to others. "Authorized Users" means only the faculty or staff members of the Subscriber and other individuals whom the Subscriber warrants have contractual access to the Subscriber's information systems using an IP address within the ranges identified in Appendix C, on-site, or off-site via Secure Authentication and who are affiliated with the Subscriber (whether on a permanent or temporary basis). Persons who are not a current member of the staff or a contractor of the Subscriber, but who are permitted to access the Subscriber's information services from computer terminals within the physical premises of the Subscriber ("Walk-In Users") are also deemed to be Authorized Users, only for the time they are within the physical premises. Walk-In Users may not be given means to access the Licensed Material when they are not within the physical premises of the Subscriber. The Subscriber warrants and represents that common and reasonable methods will be used to inform Authorized Users of the general terms and conditions for the use of the Licensed Material that are consistent with this Agreement. Furthermore, the Subscriber will make every attempt to enforce the terms of this Agreement upon receiving information from ECS or any other source that reasonably indicates that one or more Authorized Users is in violation of the terms of this Agreement.

5. PERMITTED USE

- a. Authorized Users are permitted online access to Scitation and the Licensed Material listed in Appendix A, and may download, save, or print text, search results, or other information from Scitation solely for their private use or research. The Sites and Authorized Users may only use this online access in a way that conforms with all applicable laws and regulations.
- b. For each online journal listed in Appendix A, ECS grants Authorized Users permission to use brief quotations from the content of the online journals with the customary acknowledgment of the source, and to copy and transmit content from individual articles in "person-to-person" and non-systematic exchanges of information between Authorized Users and specific individuals.
- c. Subscriber may supply a copy of an article to a non-subscribing library under the following conditions:
 1. Only a hard copy printed from the electronic files of the Licensed Material may be supplied to another library, by mail, fax, or Ariel. Under no circumstance may an ECS-prepared electronic article file be transmitted in digital form to any other person or institution.

2. Subscriber may not supply an article to another library on a commercial, revenue-generating basis without full payment of the ECS royalty, as indicated by the Item Fee Code for each publication.

3. No article may be supplied to a corporation or other non-academic institution without full payment of the ECS royalty.

4. The supply of articles to a non-subscribing academic library without payment of the Item Fee is limited in a one-year period to no more than six (6) articles from any title listed in Appendix A, published within the last five (5) years. The use of articles from the Licensed Material that exceeds these limits must be accompanied by payment of the Item Fee directly to ECS or to the appropriate Reproduction Rights Organization.

5. Subscriber may not remove, obscure or modify copyright notices that are part of an article to be printed and supplied to another library.

6. Only article requests from non-subscribing academic libraries in the country of Germany may be fulfilled, under the conditions indicated above.

d. The Subscriber agrees that use of the Licensed Material by Authorized Users other than indicated above is a violation of the terms of this Agreement. Any other use of the Licensed Material requires the written permission of the copyright holder.

6 PROHIBITIONS ON CERTAIN USE

a. Altering, recompiling, systematic or programmatic copying, reselling, redistributing, publishing or republishing (beyond the brief quotations permitted under Section 5) of any journal text, search result, or other information from the Licensed Material, or any portion thereof, including without limitation, copyright, proprietary and/or other legal notices contained therein, in any form or medium is prohibited.

b. Systematic or programmatic downloading, printing, transmitting, or copying of the Licensed Material is prohibited. "Systematic or Programmatic" means downloading, printing, transmitting, or copying activity of which the intent or the effect is to capture, reproduce, or transfer the entire output of a journal volume, a journal issue, or a journal topical section, or sequential or cumulative search results, or collections of abstracts, articles, or tables of contents. Other such systematic or programmatic use of the Licensed Materials that interferes with the access of Authorized Users or that may affect performance of the Scitation System, for example, the use of 'robots' to index content, or downloading or attempting to download large amounts of material in a short period of time, is prohibited.

c. All rights not expressly granted herein are reserved to ECS. The Sites and Authorized Users may not circumvent ECS's access control systems or use ECS's systems or services to make any attempt to gain unauthorized access to any other system or network.

d. ECS shall not be required to distribute, and Sites shall not redistribute, the Licensed Material or any article therein to a country to which export is prohibited by U.S. law or regulation.
