C. TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF USE

1. The rights and restrictions governing access to Wiley Online Library and the Electronic Products by the Licensee and its Authorized Users are outlined in the Terms and Conditions of Use below.

a. Authorized Users may download, search, retrieve, display and view, copy and save to hard disk or diskette and store or print out single copies of individual articles, chapters or entries in the Licensed Electronic Product for the Authorized User's own personal use, scholarly, educational or scientific research and the Licensee's internal business use. Authorized Users may also transmit such material to a third-party colleague in hard copy or electronically, for personal use or scholarly, educational, or scientific research or professional use or for corporate informational purposes but in no case for resale, systematic redistribution, or for any other use. In addition, Authorized Users have the right to use, with appropriate credit, figures, tables and brief excerpts from individual articles, chapters or other entries from Licensed Electronic Products in the Authorized User's own scientific, scholarly and educational works such as books and articles.

b. All Authorized Users have the option to create a My Profile Page, which will allow them to create data files and links to articles, chapters and entries of interest in the Licensed Electronic Products, and search criteria, which may be reused by them. In order to do so, the Authorized User will have to select and register a user name and password, which the Authorized User must keep confidential and not disclose to or share with anyone else.

c. The Licensee and its Authorized Users may create links to Wiley Online Library from their Online Public Access Catalog (OPAC) records, library catalogs, link resolvers, locally hosted databases or library web pages, provided those links are operated by the Licensee on a Secure Network, do not result in access to licensed content by anyone other than Authorized Users, and are not used in connection with any paid or commercial service or for any other commercial use whatsoever.

d. Authorized Users worldwide may include copies (hardcopy or electronic) of individual items from the Licensed Electronic Products in internal technical or scientific reports and in reports or applications made to appropriate regulatory or judicial bodies worldwide in the course of Licensee's or its Affiliates' business (e.g. "New Drug Application" submissions for regulatory bodies such as the Food and Drug Administration in the United States).

e. Authorized Users who are members of the Licensee's faculty or staff may download and print out multiple copies of material from Licensed Electronic Products for the purpose of making a multi-source collection of information for classroom use (course-pack) or a virtual learning environment, to be distributed to students at the Licensee's Institution free of charge or at a cost-based fee. Material from Licensed Electronic Products may also be stored in electronic format in secure electronic data files for access by Authorized Users who are students at the Licensee's Institution, as part of their course work, so long as reasonable access control methods are employed such as user name and password.

f. Authorized Users may make unlimited, internal use of the Licensed Electronic Products, including electronic storage thereof for later retrieval and submission, for regulatory or judicial submissions only, as provided in subparagraph C.1 (d) above, provided that such use does not amount, in whole or in part, to commercial redistribution for direct profit or any other reason.

g. The Licensee's library staff may supply to another library, upon request by that library, either a single paper copy (by post or fax) or an electronic copy of an individual document from the Licensed Electronic Products, for the purpose of research or private study. The electronic copy must be supplied by secure electronic transmission (like Ariel) and must be deleted by the recipient library immediately after printing a paper copy of the document for its user.

2. Except as provided in Paragraph C. 1 above, Authorized Users may not copy, distribute, transmit or otherwise reproduce, sell, or resell material from the Electronic Products; store such material in any form or medium in a retrieval system; or transmit such material, directly or indirectly, for use in any paid service such as document delivery or list serve, or for use by any information brokerage or for systematic distribution, whether or not for commercial or non-profit use, or for a fee or free of charge.

3. The Licensee and its Authorized Users may not remove, obscure or modify any copyright or proprietary notices, author attribution or any disclaimer as they appear on Wiley Online Library. Authorized Users may not integrate material from the Electronic Products with other material or otherwise create derivative works in any medium. However, brief quotations for purposes of comment, criticism or similar scholarly purposes are not prohibited herein.

4. Authorized Users may not do anything to restrict or inhibit any other Authorized User's access to or use of Wiley Online Library and the Licensed Electronic Products.
